Understanding Cambridge Academic English B1 Level

What Is the B1 Level?

The Cambridge English B1 exam, also known as Preliminary, is designed for learners who can manage everyday communication and basic academic tasks. At this level, you're expected to handle simple social and workplace interactions, understand key points in clear standard speech, and produce short written texts on familiar topics.

Exam Structure and Format

The B1 exam consists of four parts:

- Listening – 30 minutes, 16 questions
- Reading – 35 minutes, 20 questions
- Writing – 40 minutes, 2 tasks
- Speaking – 10–12 minutes, 3 parts

Each part is carefully calibrated to assess your ability to use English in real-life contexts.
